Appendix C – Group Exercise

Each group ranked the following points in order of importance in relation to Think Family services:-

Group 1

Help as early as possible (Early Help)

Services take account of the whole families needs

Access to services through children's centre or schools

One worker from start to finish (lead family worker)

One contact point for all services

Parenting support including Parenting Classes

Parents need to be partners with services

Information is shared by services with parental permission Services open to all families

Services available in home community

Group 2

One contact point for all services

Services open to all families

Help as early as possible (Early Help)

Services take account of the whole families needs

Parenting support including Parenting Classes

Parents need to be partners with services

Services available in home community

Information is shared by services with parental permission Access to services through children's centre or schools

One worker from start to finish (lead family worker)

Group 3

Help as early as possible (Early Help)

One worker from start to finish (lead family worker)

Access to services through children's centre or schools

Services available in home community

Services take account of the whole families needs

Parenting support including Parenting Classes

Parents need to be partners with services

Information is shared by services with parental permission

One contact point for all services