Social Work Show

The North West Social Work Show is the largest one-day conference and exhibition in the sector.

Network with 1700 social work colleagues who are interested in finding the next step in their career, discovering innovative practice and supporting the social work and social care profession.

The exhibition will feature many organisations from a variety of areas across the sector.

Universities

At the event to discuss your ongoing learning are universities offering their latest undergraduate, postgraduate and distance learning courses along with one-to-one advice about post-qualifying training.

-  Manchester Metropolitan University
-  The Open University
-  UCLAN
-  University of Kent

Voluntary sector organisations

Find out about current projects and innovations from organisations in the voluntary sector.

-  Autism Together
-  Child Poverty Action Group
-  Together Trust

Speak to your professional association

This is your opportunity to speak with BASW to discuss your views on national and local social work issues as well as any professional advice you may need assistance with. They are the voice of your profession and want to hear what you have to say. Don't forget to join BASW on their march to #BootOutAusterity on 19-25 April.

Specialist service providers

Speak to representatives from the following providers about how their services are shaping the sector.

-  Cansford Labs
-  Creative Support
-  Five Rivers Child Care
-  The Mulberry Bush Organisation
-  Richardson Partnership for Care

Booksellers

Visit Kirwin Maclean Associates who will provide a bookshop of social work publications and tools including their Social Work Theory Cards, Reflective Practice Cards and Social Work Pocket Guides.

23 social work employers recruiting

Local authorities, children's services trusts and The Falkland Islands Government will be available all day from 9.30am to 4.30pm to talk with you about your next social work job. Jobs on offer will include positions for newly qualified social workers through to roles in senior management. Specific jobs will be listed on each employer's profile at www.compassjobsfair.com so you can visit the event knowing which positions you want to apply for.
