

Information regarding an Applicant's Knowledge Test

The knowledge test is a written test and consists mostly of multiple choice questions. Areas covered include:-

- The law;
- Child Sexual Exploitation (you should undertake and pass the Barnardo's Child Sexual Exploitation on line training before you do the knowledge test);
- Numeracy – this includes some questions on fares and how much change should be given;
- Highway Code including road signs, speed limits etc.