

APPLICATION FOR A PREMISES LICENCE (Not Private Members Clubs)

LICENSING ACT 2003

This guidance document is designed to help you, please read it all carefully. If the Council receives application forms or other documents that are incomplete, missing or incorrect the application will be returned to you.

To assist you, this guidance refers to documents by a quoting a reference number such as Prem/01 or Pers/02. This reference number can be found by looking in the bottom right-hand corner of the various forms that have been sent to you.

Please note, if you currently operate as a take-away or similar establishment, and you have a 'registration' from Environmental Health or a Street Trading consent/licence you must still apply for a new licence under the Licensing Act 2003 in order to provide Late Night Refreshment.

Copies of Application

When you make your application, the law requires you to send a copy of your application, and the plan of your premises, to a number of 'responsible authorities'. Appendix I provides the names and addresses of these organisations. You must send a copy of you application to these organisations as soon as you apply to the Council.

Application Form (Prem/01)

If you wish to apply for a new Premises Licence you must complete the application form (Prem/01).

You may apply for a number of activities to be included on your licence. Whatever you intend to do, you must detail all of this information clearly on the application form. The Council will consider only those activities that you have specifically requested.

A licence is needed to offer any of the following activities: -

- Sale of alcohol,
- Supply of alcohol by or on behalf of a club,
- Regulated entertainment (see below),
- Late night refreshment

Regulated entertainment means: -

- Performance of live music *(see note below)
- Any playing of recorded music,
- Performance of, or offering facilities for, dancing,
- Performance of a play,
- An exhibition of a film,
- Indoor sports events,
- Boxing or wrestling entertainment,
- Anything similar to the above, or offering facilities for any of the above.

*NOTE (Live Music exemption)

Recent changes to the law now mean that Live Music is no longer regulated entertainment in venues licensed for the sale of alcohol for consumption 'on the premises', in the following situations:

- When it is unamplified and takes place between 8am and 11pm; and
- When it is amplified and takes place in the presence of an audience of 200 persons or less between 8am and 11pm.

The premises must be open for the sale of alcohol during the time that the live music is provided for the exemption to take effect.

Additionally, any condition attached a Premises Licence relating to live music ceases to have effect unless the condition was attached as a result of a Premises Licence 'Review' hearing.

Venues which are NOT licensed for Alcohol

Premises which are not licensed for alcohol sales can also have live music which is unamplified providing it takes place between 8am and 11pm.

Therefore 'amplified live music' in non-licensed venues will still require formal authorisation from the Licensing Authority, such as a Premises Licence or Temporary Event Notice.

You should only request 'Live Music' on the application form for situations where it would require a formal authorisation e.g. after 11pm and amplified events where there will be more than 200 people, etc.

Form of Consent (DPS) (Prem/06)

If you are applying for a licence that will authorise the sale of alcohol, you must state who will act as the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS). The DPS is the person who assumes day to day responsibility for the running of the premises. Because of the importance of this position, the person who will act as the DPS must consent to it.

Note: The person nominated as the DPS must hold a Personal Licence under the Licensing Act 2003. If this person does not currently hold such a licence, they may still be nominated as the DPS but must obtain their personal licence before alcohol can be sold on the premises. Every supply of alcohol under the premises licence must be made or authorised by a person who holds a personal licence.

Plan of the Premises

The plan of the premises must contain the following information and must be clear and legible in all material respects.

- the extent of the boundary of the building, if relevant, and any external and internal walls of the building and, if different, the perimeter of the premises;
- the location of points of access to and egress from the premises;
- if different from above, the location of escape routes from the premises;
- in a case where the premises is to be used for more than one licensable activity, the area within the premises used for each activity;
- fixed structures (including furniture) or similar objects temporarily in a fixed location (but not furniture) which may impact on the ability of individuals on the premises to use exits or escape routes without impediment;
- in a case where the premises includes a stage or raised area, the location and height of each stage or area relative to the floor;
- in a case where the premises includes any steps, stairs, elevators or lifts, the location of the steps, stairs, elevators or lifts;
- in the case where the premises includes any room or rooms containing public conveniences, the location of the room or rooms;
- the location and type of any fire safety and any other safety equipment including, if applicable, marine safety equipment; and
- the location of a kitchen, if any, on the premises.

The plan may also include a legend through which the matters mentioned or referred to above are sufficiently illustrated by the use of symbols on the plan.

The Fee

The fee you must pay to obtain your licence depends on the rateable value of the premises to which the application relates. A table of fees is attached as Appendix II.

Advertising Your Application

The law requires you to advertise your application to allow members of the public to make comments.

You are required to advertise in two ways: -

- Display a prominent Notice on the premises, for at least 28 consecutive days, which can be easily read from the exterior of the premises; and
- Place a Notice in a local newspaper (eg Hartlepool Mail or Hartlepool Life)

A copy of the pale blue Notice (Not-01) that must be displayed on the premises is attached. Obviously this is a standard form and requires you to complete it with details of your application before it is displayed.

A copy of the Public Notice to be placed in a local newspaper (Not-01a) is also attached and must contain the same information that is displayed on the blue premises Notice. This must be done within ten working days following the date of your application. You will need to calculate the date by which objections must be received and insert it on the form (i.e. the date will be 28 consecutive days following the day you made your application).

In order to place your notice in a local publication you must send the completed Not-01a form via email to either publicnotices@jpress.co.uk (Hartlepool Mail) or advertising@hartlepoollife.co.uk (Hartlepool Life) . Please note that the publications cannot accept bookings over the phone.

After 28 days you must complete and return the attached form (Dec1) to the Licensing Team, confirming that you have advertised the application on the premises and when it was advertised in the press.

It is a criminal offence to knowingly or recklessly make a false statement concerning a licence application.

Once you have completed the application form it must be submitted, with a plan of the premises and any other documents, to all of the organisations listed in Appendix I.

15. Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].

- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.

- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 17(3) or 18A (2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2006, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
  - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
  - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
  - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
    - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
    - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
    - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
    - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;

- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
