Cleveland Police make application to review this premises licence on grounds that its operation is undermining the Licensing Objectives of Prevention of Crime and Disorder and Public Safety. The circumstances are as follows:

As a result of intelligence received a warrant was obtained under Section 23 of Misuse of Drugs Act 1971 to search the premises known as. Joanna's Fish Bar, 183 York Road, Hartlepool. This warrant was executed on Thursday 26/09/2019.

Whilst searching the premise a quantity of illegal/counterfeit cigarettes and tobacco was found of various makes. A male was arrested by officers and the goods were seized along with a quantity of money. This investigation is ongoing. It is believed that not only was illegal/counterfeit tobacco being stored at the premises but it was being sold from the premises too and with the benefit of its premises licence was able to do so until midnight.

- For the sale or storage of smuggled tobacco and alcohol.

It is for this reason the Police believe that the Crime and Disorder objective is being undermined and this is the reason the Police are calling for a review of the premise licence.
