We present an unrivalled opportunity to lease large waterfront café premises (minimum 110 covers plus café terrace) in a brand new active wellbeing hub situated overlooking Hartlepool Marina and the NMRN Hartlepool, home of HMS Trincomalee, Europe's oldest floating warship. Highlight is Hartlepool Council's prestigious new £33m active wellbeing hub featuring 3 swimming pools, fitness suite, studios, health suite and soft /active play facility together with integrated and co-located NHS clinics, accessible connection to Hartlepool Marina, outdoor events space and car park.

Rarely do opportunities of this nature become available

CGI of Highlight Leisure Centre

The Council seeks a long term relationship with a well established operator with an evidenced track record of outstanding customer service able to bring a high quality food and beverage offering to the development, which is expected to have annual visitor numbers of approximately 500,000 and which will benefit from its location in the centre of the 500 berth marina, co-host of the Tall Ships Races in both 2010 and 2023.

The Active Wellbeing Hub is currently under construction and is due for completion in late 2025, opening to the public in early 2026.

Highlight café seating area will extend to circa 267 square metres with waterside views and will be complemented by the external café terrace providing for further seating. There will be opportunities to provide catering for the Party Room adjoining the café seating area and for other events (although not an exclusive basis). The food and beverage offering is expected to focus on contemporary café style products including a range of hot drinks, cold soft drinks, light meals, snacks and fruit, but other suitable proposals can be considered.

Hartlepool has a population of approximately 92,600 people and lies on the north-east coast north of the River Tees. It's well connected by road from the A19 via the A689 and A179 to the wider region: Newcastle 34 miles, Middlesbrough 15 miles, Durham 19 miles. It has a mainline railway station (3/4 mile from the Highlight) also connecting it regionally and nationally.

Highlight is one of a number of major projects underway in Hartlepool which include Waterfront Connectivity (linking locations around the Marina including Highlight), refurbishment of the Museum of Hartlepool and Wingfield Castle paddle steamer, expansion of NMRN Hartlepool and the Screen Industries Production Village.
