I am a Police Constable employed by Cleveland Police, currently based in Alcohol Licensing Unit within Hartlepool Police.

Part of my role is to monitor licensed premises within Hartlepool and ensure that they are not undermining the licensing objectives and abiding by the licensing conditions which have been attached to their licence. If premises are not abiding by the conditions imposed then it my duty to collate evidence of the breaches and inform the licence holder of the relevant issues and how to address them.

An objection to vary a premises licence has been initiated by Hartlepool Police in relation to Sorrento Pizza shop, 49 Church Street, Hartlepool, for the following reasons. Mr Behroz Beni is the premises licence holder. At present Sorrento Pizza shop has a late night refreshment licence between the times of 23:00hrs – 02:30hrs Monday – Sunday. The application is to extend their licence until 03:00hrs on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays until 04:00hrs and Sundays until 01:00hrs.

Detailed below are offences incidents which have been recorded by Hartlepool Police and caused particular concern in relation to Sorrento Pizza shop over the past 5 months.

At 00:39hrs on Friday 14th May 2010 police observe a drunken male in Sorrento Pizza shop, male is being chewy towards customers, continues with his conduct upon leaving the premises. Male is arrested for drunk and disorderly due to his abusive conduct in public place.

At 02:35hrs on Friday 5th June 2010 Police were requested to attend Sorrento Pizza shop. This was due to a drunken male causing disturbance inside the premises and refusing to leave. Police attended and ejected the drunken male from the premises, he was then issued a Section 27 direction to leave the town centre notice. This was issued to prevent him from returning and causing any further problems in the town centre. Sorrento Pizza shop was carrying out licensed activity after 02:30hrs when they licence clearly states licensing activity until 02:30hrs. Therefore they were in breach of their premises licence for carrying out licensing activity after 02:30hrs.

At 00:42hrs on Monday 19th July 2010 Police attended Sorrento Pizza shop to a report of a female who had collapsed. Paramedics attended to treat female, however female was abusive towards police and paramedics on scene. The female refused treatment and due to her abusive behaviour she was advised to leave the town centre as she was drunk.

Police receive anonymous report that Sorrento Pizza shop was open at 03:15hrs on Saturday 28th August 2010. Licence allows Sorrento Pizza to remain open until 02:30hrs

At 02:35hrs on Monday 30th August 2010 two females were fighting whilst inside Sorrento Pizza shop. Police attended the premises and separated both females involved, they were both subsequently issued Section 27 direction to leave forms, this was to prevent any further disorder in the town centre.

CCTV footage was requested from Sorrento Pizza shop in relation to the above mentioned incident, however to date police have not received any CCTV footage regarding the above incident several requests were made.

Sorrento Pizza shop was carrying out licensed activity after 02:30hrs when they licence clearly states licensing activity until 02:30hrs. Therefore they were in breach of their premises licence for carrying out licensing activity after 02:30hrs.

At 02:45hrs on Friday 10th September 2010 I attended Sorrento Pizza Shop. The premises were still trading therefore were in breach of their licence, I spoke with a male who was still in process of serving customers he identified himself to me as Shirko Svrzaly. I asked Mr Svrzaly to show me a copy of their premises licence which should be displayed in public view. Mr Svrzaly stated that his boss Ramin had took the licence. I requested CCTV footage from Mr Svrzaly to which he stated he was unable to give CCTV without consent of his boss Ramin. This was recorded in my pocket note book, and signed by Mr Svrzaly in the presence of Special Constable 4509 Elliott.

Sorrento Pizza shop was carrying out licensed activity after 02:30hrs when they licence clearly states licensing activity until 02:30hrs. Therefore they were in breach of their premises licence for carrying out licensing activity after 02:30hrs.

At 03:00hrs on Saturday 16th October 2010 I was on uniformed duty working in Hartlepool town centre in company with APS Henderson. At this time I observed that Sorrento Pizza shop was still serving customers, I attended the premises in company with APS Henderson where I spoke to a male who I now know to be Nima Jamshidi. Mr Jamshidi informed me that he was the Manager at Sorrento Pizza shop, and confirmed that there was customers inside his premises waiting to order food, which were being served by staff he employs. He further stated that he lost track of time due to being busy in the shop. I requested CCTV footage from Mr Jamshidi, however he stated he couldn't operate the CCTV system. This was recorded in my pocket note book and signed by Mr Jamshidi.

Sorrento Pizza shop was carrying out licensed activity after 02:30hrs when they licence clearly states licensing activity until 02:30hrs. Therefore they were in breach of their premises licence for carrying out licensing activity after 02:30hrs.

Sorrento Pizza shop has on numerous occasions as outlined above, flaunted their lack of respect for other businesses and residents. They have also failed to adhere to the conditions of their licence, therefore are failing to promote the licensing objectives

The incidents above show serious breaches of the licensing objectives as outlined.

Historically, an increase in hours has lead to an increase in alcohol related crime and disorder and the premises is situated in an area where alcohol related crime and disorder exists. Although additional conditions may assist in preventing the licensing objectives being undermined, unfortunately concerns would remain because it is the belief of Cleveland Police, if the variation is granted, both the crime and disorder and public safety objectives would be undermined.

There is concern due to the fact that revellers who are vacating licensed public houses are often fuelled with alcohol which results in late night refreshments establishments becoming a flashpoint for crime and disorder and historically, allowing such persons to loiter unnecessarily in the vicinity has resulted in person being injured.

In addition to the above, Cleveland Police have recently had cause to speak to various members of the establishment due to the fact Sorrento Pizza shop has remained open and continued with licensable activities, namely selling food after the hours the premises licence permits.
