

Licensing Act Sub Committee Hearing

Tuesday, 30 November 2010

Members of the Panel:	Councillors Rogan (Chair) and Morris
Application Premises:	The Office, Church Street, Hartlepool
Officers present:	Kate Watchorn, Solicitor Ian Harrison, Principal Trading Standards and Licensing Officer Sarah Bird Democratic Services Officer
Applicant:	Inspector Green, Sergeant Henderson
Respondent	Not present
Decision:
An application for a review of a premises licence in respect of The Office, Church Street, Hartlepool had been received from Cleveland Police. However, negotiations had taken place with the owner of the premises and conditions had been agreed which would be monitored by Cleveland Police and Hartlepool Borough Council's Environmental Health Department over a two month period. The meeting was therefore adjourned to reconvene on or around 1 February 2011 should this be considered necessary.

CHAIR

Licensing Act Sub Committee Hearing

Thursday 3 February 2011

Members of the Panel:	Councillors London, Morris and Rogan (Chair)
Application Premises:	The Office, Church Street, Hartlepool
Officers present:	Sylvia Pinkney, Public Protection Manager Heather Deane, Environmental Health Officer Tony Macnab, Solicitor Jo Wilson, Democratic Services Officer
Applicant:	Inspector Tony Green Marie Nevison, Police Solicitor
Decision:
Following the application for review the licence was transferred from the previous premises licence holder Miss Rachael Gilfoyle to the Haygarth Training Company. The licensed hours were reduced from 0400 hours to 0200 hours and conditions were added to the licence to electronically limit the volume of amplified music. In the circumstances the licensing authority did not consider it necessary to take any steps for the promotion of the licensing objectives.

CHAIR