Strategic Briefing: Cleveland Police – Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG)

Executive Summary

This strategic briefing provides an executive-level summary of Cleveland Police and the Office of the Police and Crime Commissioner's (OPCC) response to Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG). It integrates findings from the VAWG Self-Assessment narrative, PCC scrutiny materials, and evidence from operational and partnership activity. The document is designed for the Hartlepool Community Safety Partnership (CSP) to support joint planning, scrutiny, and a unified response to preventing harm, supporting victims, and pursuing perpetrators.

Key Strategic Headlines

- VAWG is embedded as a strategic requirement across the Force Management Statement, Strategic Plan and the 4P Vulnerability Strategy.
- Strong governance through the Safeguarding Governance Group, Domestic Abuse Improvement Meeting, and Tactical Vulnerability Group.
- PCC commissions a wide range of VAWG specialist services including ISVA/IDVA provision, stalking advocacy and NTE safety initiatives.
- Implementation of Operation Soteria, Operation Unified and participation in the national DAPO pilot strengthens investigative quality and structural resilience.
- Areas for development include improved engagement with seldom-heard groups, stronger data-sharing with partners, and evaluation of protective orders.

1. Strategic Positioning

- VAWG is explicitly prioritised in the Force's Management Statement and Strategic Plan.
- Financial resourcing includes DA Units, CID RASSO investigators, and CAVA, and more recently force restructuring and changes to the force operating model (Operation Unified), supplemented by OPCC commissioned projects (Safer Streets, specialist support services, and Tess-wide Domestic Abuse Perpetrator Strategy).
- Corporate communications provide transparent public reporting on DA, rape and stalking investigations, and VAWG related activities and initiatives.

2. Governance & Accountability

- Comprehensive VAWG self-assessment aligned to the national NPCC framework completed.
- Operation Unified strengthens investigative capacity and supervision across RASSO and DA.
- PCC scrutiny provides independent oversight including thematic reviews of stalking, harassment, DA and police-perpetrated VAWG. Of note, the force has recently received full assurance from the PCC regards its approach to VAWG.

3. Engagement with Women & Girls

- Engagement mechanisms include DHR/SCR processes, Victim's Right to Review, victim voice in DA and rape investigations, along with regular feedback via victim surveys (DA and Stalking as examples).
- Gaps identified: No VAWG-specific Independent Advisory Group; lack of structured listening circles; limited evidence of 'You Said, We Did'.
- Engagement with schools, faith communities and cadet programmes present but not yet coordinated under a VAWG framework.

4. Prevention & Early Intervention

- VR-based educational programmes delivered to young people aged 9–14 addressing consent and online harms.
- CURV-funded Night-Time Economy safety campaigns targeting spiking, VAWG messaging, Ask for Angela training and Women's Street Watch.
- Sex work liaison and community outreach improving engagement with marginalised women.
- VKPP collaboration reviewing domestic abuse-related suicides and near-miss homicides.

5. Operational Response & Investigations

- Operation Soteria implemented with mandatory DI 14-day reviews, suspect-focused investigations and specialist training.
- DA Evidence-Led Prosecution toolkit development to strengthen early evidence capture.
- New stalking reporting page and compliance with stalking super-complaint recommendations.
- Digital investigation capability enhanced via DTAC, Operation Modify, and improved forensic support.
- Use of force wide initiatives including Operation Artimus through planned days of action to tackle VAWG

6. Victim Support & Safeguarding

- Live Link facilities at My Sisters Place and Harbour provide safe remote evidence options for VAWG victims.
- VCOP compliance monitored via Power BI dashboards; supervisors held to account via performance framework.
- MARAC, MATAc and MAPPA processes provide multi-agency oversight of risk.
- Gap identified: Need for robust evaluation of protective order outcomes (DVPN/DVPO/SRO/DAPO).

7. Partnership Work & Whole-System Delivery

- Cleveland Police actively participates in all four local authority DA partnerships, TSAB and Teeswide CSP structures.
- Partnership pathways strong with Harbour, My Sister's Place, Halo, A Way Out, Barnardo's and SARC.
- Data returns from partners into VAWG problem profiles remain inconsistent, limiting analytical insight.

8. Police-Perpetrated VAWG & Professional Standards

- Centurion VAWG flag enables tracking and monitoring of PP-VAWG cases.
- Dedicated DSE investigators all PIP2 trained, with regular liaison with DA Units.
- Gaps: vetting lapses, limited anonymous reporting confidence, and limited reality-testing of culture.

9. Culture, Training & Workforce Development

- 86.5% completion rate of mandatory Sexual Harassment e-learning; T&F group established to embed framework.
- Upstander training planned for reinvigoration; Code of Ethics training ongoing.
- Women's Working Group identifies gender-based barriers and experiences of misogyny requiring action.

10. Data, Analytics & Understanding Threat

- VAWG problem profile published 2023; next refresh scheduled 2026/27.
- Ethnicity recording improved to 80–85% via performance oversight.
- Demographics dashboard and Cambridge Harm Score integration underway.
- Digital hotspot mapping present for NTE, seasonal trends and control strategy priorities.

Future VAWG Initiatives

- Launch of a dedicated VAWG Independent Advisory Group (IAG) to strengthen community voice and scrutiny.
- Establishment of a continuous programme of VAWG Listening Circles with women, girls and underrepresented groups.
- Rollout of Operation Unified Phase 2, consolidating RASSO/DA investigation teams to increase resilience and reduce delays.
- Evaluation framework for protective orders (DVPN/DVPO/DAPO/SRO) to better understand outcomes and compliance.
- Expansion of tech-enabled VAWG prevention through Operation Modify and new digital safeguarding campaigns.
- Strengthening MARAC governance following VKPP peer review, including consistency of risk assessment and partner attendance.
- Pilot of trauma-informed training for all front-line responders aligned to Op Soteria Pillar 4.
- Development of a Cleveland-wide VAWG Community Confidence Strategy addressing mistrust and under-reporting.

VAWG Impact Metrics & Performance Overview

Recent performance data demonstrates both improvements and challenges across Cleveland's VAWG landscape. Overall VAWG crime volumes have remained relatively similar in 2025 compared to in 2024 (-2%, 53 fewer offences). VAWG represented 23% of all recorded crime. Stalking and harassment offences have reduced (-8%). Whilst sexual offences (+12%) have seen and violence without injury offences (+14%) have increased.

Criminal justice outcomes have improved since 2023. The solved rate for VAWG reached 9.7% for the 12-months to August 2025, it has fallen since then to 8.6% for 2025 but this is still in line with 2024¹. In addition, there has been enhanced disruption to criminality shown by the increasing arrest rates for VAWG offences, up to 36% in 2025 (+4.5%pts than in 2024). Performance data indicates continued challenges in emergency and priority attendance for vulnerable victims and domestic abuse victims. In 2025, emergency attendance was 83.2% within target timescales (+0.6%pts on 2024) for incidents involving a vulnerable person and 86.7% (+1.1%pts) for domestic abuse. In 2025, priority attendance was 41.0% within target timescale (+1.7%pts on 2024) for incidents involving a vulnerable person and 32.0% (+2.5%pts) for domestic abuse.

Overall harm associated with VAWG remains high, underlining the need for sustained partnership focus on prevention, early identification of risk, and targeted disruption of high-harm offenders. Victim satisfaction insights continue to emphasise the importance of timely updates, fairness, and clear explanations in improving trust and confidence in policing.

¹ Solved rate calculation has changed since previous report to being of the percentage of crimes closed and no longer includes outcome 22s (diversionary, educational or intervention activity).

			06/01/26 – David Riley – Enforcement/Parking During 2024/25 and 2025/26 uniformed Kingdom officers have been on daily patrols across the borough but mainly focused in a number of crime trigger areas, including Victoria Ward, Burn Valley Ward and Foggy Furze Ward. This has allowed a council lead daily presence on the streets. Although primarily focused on ASB and Enviro crime, they have also been involved in other front-line queries and have given out advice on any council related topics. Council enforcement officers also do uniformed patrols across the borough and use marked council vans to show a visual presence. Signage has been put up in key areas on how to report certain issues and offer a visual deterrent. Any fly tipping investigated is also stickered to show the public that council officers have investigated it and passed it over to be removed as soon as possible, to provide a further reassurance of presence. 12.01.26 - Nicholas Stone, Community Safety Team Leader and Philip Hepburn, Community Safety Manager UKSPF hotspot patrols around the town centre are set to continue until 31.03.26. From 01.04.26 onwards there will be an additional Civil Enforcement Officer funded by Pride in Place for initially 1 year.
