46. Abandonment of Meeting

Shortly before the meeting and after the agenda papers had been issued, the Trades Union representative for the appellant (who was the subject of the dismissal appeal to be considered by the Sub Committee) requested that the meeting be postponed. The Trades Union representative had only become involved in the case very late in the process and requested the postponement to allow time to consult with the appellant. The Chair reluctantly agreed to the request on the advice of the HR Business Partner. As the hearing was not to proceed at the appointed date and time, Members were informed that there was no need for their attendance.
