

The Moon
that wanted
to be the Sun

Amongst the stars, the light is drifting into the darkness, as the day turns to night.

There is something else in the sky.
But who is it?

It's The Moon...

The Moon always dreamed of being the Sun, because it's always awake in the day, it's bright and fun

"You can't be The Sun"
said The Star, we need
you here for the night
and the dark.

"But I don't want to be the Moon, I want to be The Sun, shiny
and bright"
The Moon said

"I'm afraid you don't look quite right." said The Star

"What about now?"
said The Moon,
feeling all proud

"No" said the Star,
The Sun is always round.

"Ok! how about now" said The Moon, beaming, or so he thought...

"No,No,No." said The Star, The Sun is much more gleaming and bright than that.

The Moon sighed and said "So I can never be bright and special like The Sun then?"

Then all of a sudden, out of the darkness,
came a light...

It's The Sun, who loudly said
"You are just as important as me in the day, and for what you bring to the darkest night."

Whether you are the bright sun, a glowing moon or a tiny star, never forget how special you are.
